II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Federal question

Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

$5,000,000 USD

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

I applied to the law firm as a paralegal with a standing resume which is attached to the end of the legal brief that follows this form, to a litigation attorney, litigation lawyer, non-paralegal role. Because of the quality of the resume and my presented skills, interviewed at the attorney position and thoroughly was (threatening breach of contract because I did not confirm) admonished for not being an attorney, and was threatened repeatedly, summarily to be hung up on if I did not confess to being an attorney. Instead of a paralegal role, the partner attorney, law firm manager, demanded that I accept a role of COO equivalent operations office manager and COULD NOT be hired as a paralegal, offered this brand new created role and immaterially lost the role due to personal invasive...

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

...background check non-requirement, to personally phone managers at stated employed company. Asked repeatedly for structure, architecture, organization organized detail information about stated employed company as intellectual property theft attempt to boost competency and company efficiency at this law firm at the threat of closing the interview. Seeking $5,000,000M USD for lost future wages, even though I promised to bring in cases that I know about that would earn them millions upon millions of dollars
